

Special Education Litigation Prevention: Avoiding Attorneys

Special education legal involvement can often be avoided by simply understanding the law. While special education law is complex, the basics are not. Join an experienced teacher (with a law degree) who bridges the gap between attorneys and school personnel

What you will Learn:

The topic may sound dry, but it comes to life when someone from the inside of a school presents real cases for real teachers.

Actual cases highlighting "both sides of the story" will be presented and the specific laws applied.

Topics include:

1. Discipline
 2. Restraint
 3. Suspension
 4. BIPs
 5. IEPs
- And more...

Dr. Jacque Phillips, JD has taught general and special education for over 20 years in CO, HI, Kenya and Burma. She is the author of The Cool Teacher's Guide to Behavior Management. She has presented extensively at the state, national, and international level. Dr. Phillips is a graduate from DU law school with an emphasis on Special Education Law.

If desired, participants will be eligible to receive .5 Graduate Credit from UC Denver for $30

- Where: Wheat Ridge Recreation Center
4005 Kipling Street Wheat Ridge, Colorado 80033
- When: Friday March 12, 2010
7:30 a.m.—3:30 p.m.
*Includes coffee, lunch and snacks
- Cost: $125 for full day of training
- Register: Please go online to www.frontrangeboces.org to register