

Front Range BOCES presents
The Teacher Leadership Certificate
Vital Skills

Collaborator & Facilitator

A Professional Development Module
Available for credit

Does your team need to facilitate groups to collaboratively solve problems and make decisions that will impact achievement?

Knowledge

- Recognize various strategies a facilitator can use for groups solving problems and making decisions
- Summarize the research about collaboration and improved student achievement gains
- Critique how professional learning communities facilitate student learning

Skills

- Illustrate skills in the planning and selection of strategies for facilitating groups for different purposes
- Display proficiency in utilizing various strategies and interventions for conflict situations so as to increase the benefits of healthy disagreements in serving students

Developers/Facilitators:

Heather Clifton currently consults nationally in many areas related to instructional improvement and student learning. Prior to serving in this role, she worked as a principal in the Jefferson County School District and then as a Staff Development Specialist in the Adams Twelve Five Star Schools.

Susan Sparks is the Executive Director of the Front Range Board of Cooperative Educational Services. A former art teacher for the St. Vrain Valley School District, she has had leadership roles in four BOCES in Colorado and consults nationally in areas related to facilitation and group dynamics.
